

A half hour television series that integrates learning how to fish in multiple atmospheres from fresh water to saltwater. Look out each week as skilled guides show the 2 female hosts, Sarah and Lea, with their sidekick Devlynne and "Aqua Man" Earl Richmond, that women can fish too! This program provides instructional lessons, with a feminine spin on what happens when girls go fishing. Mixed with light humor and geographical delights as the girls set out across America, Canada, and Mexico learning the tricks of sport fishing and giving a few tips of their own!
